

Have You Heard Nasheed Lyrics

Each day we are reminded and each day we say there's not much that we can do it seems so far away
So we live our lives in silence pretending not to hear the voices of our people
The cry is so so clear Why do we stand by spectating while our brothers cry jihad?
We are bound by one conviction:
we believe in Allah

Chorus:
Have you heard of Kosova, of Afghanistan?
Have you heard of Palestine [2nd chorus: Bosnia] of Chechan?
Have you heard of all these people persecuted in their land?
Do you know that all these people are dying for Islam?
Have you heard, have you heard have you heard?

Each day is like another Nothing seems to change
Today he'll lose his brother Tomorrow will be the same Yet his faith makes him stronger he's come so so far The pain in his heart is eased by his love for Allah O I envy you my brother in adversity you pray
You know that heaven awaits you at the end of this day
