

Shaikh Maahir's parents moved to Madinah where he was born. He memorized the whole Quran in Madinah and was taught in the class with many scholars who are respected worldwide and in Madinah. He began his career in the North of The Kingdom of Saudia. He was taught extensively in mathematics until he began teaching it as well. At this point he stopped preaching and started working as a math teacher. He went back to Makkah to become a scholar and taught in the school of Balaat.

In Makkah he became a renowned speaker and began preaching once again. After becoming loved by the people he was chosen to become an advisor to Prince Abdul-Majid in Makkah.

The Shaikh is married and has 4 children, 2 boys and two girls. He began teaching the Qur'an in Makkah before he began teaching at King Abdullah Saood University. He was promised before Ramadan that he would lead Taraweeh prayers in Madinah for the year 1426 and 1427, so he did. After that he was moved to Makkah and began to lead Taraweeh from the first day of 1428 Ramadan in Masjid Al- Haram with Sheikh Abdur-Rahman As-Sudais.
