

Biography of Shaikh Salaah bin Muhammad Al-Budair

Shaikh Salaah bin Muhammad Al-Budairi was born in the city of Hufoof; one of the cities in the eastern region of the province of Al-Ahsaa. The Shaikh received (obtained) his education in the city of Hufoof. He is the oldest son; followed by him is his brother Sheikh Nabeel, their voices are different but style of recitation is very similar.

Shaikh Salaah bin Muhammad Al-Budair began Imamatus when he was in secondary level around the year 1406. He led salaah alternately with his Sheikh Ahmed As-Salmy from Mashaikh Governor of Al-Ahsaa. The Shaikh received his university education from the University of Muhammad bin Saud Al-Islamiyya in the Department of Shariah in the province of Al-Ahsaa. Shaikh Budair then studied in the Institute of Higher learning in (Islamic) Law.

Shaikh Salaah bin Muhammad Al-Budair was initially appointed imam in the city of Dammam then moved (was appointed) in the city of Riyadh, he then became an imam in Madinah Munawwarah . The Sheikh has a calm recitation coming from the heart and is a very humble man.

Shaikh Budair lives in the city of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and where he is a judge in the high court of Madinah (along with being an Imam in the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him's Masjid). May Allah protect him and continue to keep him humble. Shaikh Salaah bin Muhammad Al-Budair is from the tribe of Tameem.
